Description : Description du produitFirst published in 1874, Lady Anna is a tale of enforced marriage in the midst of a world of radical politics and social inequality. We see the attempts of Countess Lovel to justify her claim to her title and the struggles of her daughter Anna as she must choose between a marriage of true love and one of convenience and social profit.

Prsentation de l'diteur Two of British author Anthony Trollopes Victorian novels are in this Kindle eBook: Lady Anna Castle RichmondLady AnnaLady Anna is the illegitimate daughter of the late Earl Lovel, a bigamist whose mother married more for ambition than love. Lady Lovel struggled to prove the validity of her marriage, but her only friend was Thomas, who financed her legal battles. A murder is being plotted. Castle Richmond Castle Richmond is set in southwestern Ireland at beginning of the famine. Castle Richmond is situated on the banks of the Blackwater River in County Cork. The plot features the competition of two men for the hand of Clara Desmond, the noble but impoverished daughter of the Countess of Desmond.
