Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurOpera gets sexy! American music mogul Teddy Wilson combines the beauty of opera with the marketability of pop and creates the pop-opera multinational singing group called Bel Homme.

French for Beautiful Man, the four performers he chooses are much more than that.Gabriel Grenier is already a huge celebrity in his native France, but even at the height of his career, hes bored and lonely and still wants more, so he accepts Teddys offer, hoping it will become his redemption. American music teacher

Annie Morgan is brought into this venture by her Aunt Harriet, whos Teddys executive assistant. Annie becomes Teddys special emissary in this new undertakingbut shes not prepared for her instant attraction to the charismatic Gabriel. And hes blindsided by the life-altering effect of Annies very first smile. It doesnt matter, anyway, because Teddy wants nothing personal mucking up this gig, and he forbids the two to get involved. Gabriel has never had to answer to anyone, and hes not sure he wants to start now. Annie is still mourning her deceased husbands memory, and shes not sure of anything. What happens when beautiful music meets predestined love? Seduction always wins. Gabriels and Annies love story is the first book in this romantic, sexy Bel Homme Quartet. Dont miss being there from the very beginning. Vive la France!Prsentation de l'diteurOpera gets sexy!
